

ELENA DANESCU: HISTORY OF A EUROPEAN IDEA

Elena Danescu

Invitation

We would like to cordially invite you to a short film screenings and a lecture titled “History of a European idea a the origins of Economic and Monetary Union” with our honorary guest Elena Danescu. The event takes place on Monday, June 10 at 11:00 in the room B330.

Elena Danescu holds a PhD in Political Economics from the National Institute of Economic Research (INCE) of the Romanian Academy, with a thesis on the Luxembourg development model and the achievements of Pierre Werner. She is registered as a supervisor at the Doctoral School in Humanities and Social Sciences (DSHSS)/University of Luxembourg. She is a funding Fellow of Robert Schuman Institute of European Affairs. In recent years she also successfully submitted two competitive public history projects for the University of Luxembourg. She has authored numerous publications in her areas of expertise. Since 2015, she has been involved in the evaluation of interdisciplinary research projects submitted to COST Association and MIUR/Italian Research Funding.